If the laws of the governing state so requires, all items purchased for resale will be resold by me within the geographical limits of the US, it's territories and possessions, or within the geographical limits of the United Mexican States, in their present form or attached to other taxable items to be sold. I understand that it is unlawful to give a resale certificate to a seller for taxable items which I know at the time of purchase will be used in a manner inconsistent with the purpose stated in this certificate. I am aware that it is unlawful to present a resale certificate for the purchase of taxable items in which are intended for my use, or for any use other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding them for sale. I acknowledge that the misuse of this certificate may subject me to sanctions and penalties as prescribed by laws of the governing state. For Texas purchasers, I understand that it is a criminal offense to give a resale certificate to the seller for taxable items that I know, at the time of purchase, are purchased for use rather than for the purpose of resale, lease, or rental and depending on the amount of tax evaded, the offense may range from a Class C misdemeanor to a felony of the second degree.
